Numb. 1227

The Daily Gazetteer.

Monday, May 28. 1739. No. 1225.

The Queries in the Craftſman of laſt Saturday will be beſt anſwer'd by asking others.

I.

Y whoſe Authority, from whoſe Inſtructions, or with whoſe Privity has the Craftſman been publiſhed for ſo many Years?

II. Has not the late Lord B——k been the Writer of many of thoſe Papers? And has not the ſame Perſon been the chief Adviſer, Director, and Conductor of the Oppoſition to all the Meaſures of the preſent Government?

III. Whether there is any one Man in the Nation who in his Conſcience believes that Perſon to be a Man of Virtue, Honour, and Integrity, and a Lover of his Country? and, if not, upon what Motives, what Views and Deſigns can they imagine ſuch an Oppoſition, begun and carried on by him, muſt be founded?

IV. Whether thoſe who join'd with him, and acted under his Influence and Direction in their Oppoſition to the Government, muſt not have been thoroughly acquainted with his Character, and with his Motives, Views and Deſigns? If they were, — What muſt have been their own Motives, Views and Deſigns in liſting under his Banners, and acting in Conjunction with ſuch a Man? If they were not, —— What Abilities or Capacity muſt they have for the Adminiſtration of the Affairs of the Nation, who diſcover'd ſo little Knowledge of Mankind, as to be ſo groſly deceived and impoſed upon by him?

V. Whether the Violence and Intemperance which they have betray'd through the whole Courſe of their Oppoſition aroſe from their Zeal to the Publick? or whether it did not proceed from their Rancour and Malice to particular Perſons?

VI. Whether in an infinite Multitude of their Papers, Pamphlets and Speeches, they have not moſt unjuſtly and ſcandalouſly vilify'd and abuſed Perſons of the greateſt Diſtinction and Eminence, both in Church and State, who have concurr'd in the Meaſures of the Adminiſtration? Whether they have not, in the moſt opprobrious and moſt indecent Terms, ſlander'd and aſpers'd the Majority of both H—— of P——, and even his M——y himſelf? — nay, whether they have not inſulted even the Aſhes of her late M——y, and purſued her with their lewd Ribbaldry beyond the Grave? A Thing too ſhocking to be mention'd, and which could hardly be credited, if it was not notoriouſly known.

VII. Whether it is not contrary to the common Senſe and Reaſon of Mankind to believe, that People who are capable of acting in ſo furious and outragious a Manner, who are ſo abandon'd, ſo loſt to all Senſe of Shame and Decency, can be really Men of Virtue, Honour, and publick Spirit, and have only the Good and Intereſt of their Country at Heart?

VIII. Whether, on the other Hand, they muſt not be look'd upon by all the World, who are not run mad with the Diſtemper of the Times, which theſe People have ſo indefatigably labour'd to propagate among us, to be the vileſt of Hypocrites and Impoſtors? and to cloath themſelves under the ſacred Character of Patriotiſm and publick Virtue, to deceive and abuſe the weak and miſguided Multitude, in order to accompliſh their own wicked and pernicious Schemes, which portend nothing but Deſtruction to their Country?

IX. Whether the Difficulties which we may perhaps be intangled in with ſome of our neighbouring Nations are not intirely owing to the Conduct and Behaviour of the principal Perſons in the Oppoſition, and to the Diſſentions and Diſtractions which they have created in the Nation, if not to the Advices, Informations and Encouragement which the M——rs of thoſe Powers have from Time to Time received from them? and whether, when they themſelves have been the Occaſion of involving us in thoſe Difficulties, they have not, without the leaſt Regard to Truth, or the leaſt Senſe of Shame, thrown all the Reproach and Odium of it upon the Adminiſtration?

N. B. When theſe Queries are anſwer'd, it will be Time enough to give an Anſwer to thoſe in the Craftſman: In the mean while, I cannot help taking Notice of the Folly and Impudence of the little, low Fellow who publiſhes that Paper, in daring to apply any of the Characters drawn in a late Gazetteer to any noble Perſons who have been diſtinguiſhed by honourable Embaſſies or Imployments abroad; becauſe it is impoſſible to imagine that any Nobleman, who has receiv'd ſuch Marks of the Royal Favour, could act in ſuch a Manner as is deſcrib'd in thoſe Characters; and conſequently nobody would ever have taken it into their Heads to conceive that any ſuch noble Perſons could be meant, if this officious forwards Scribler had not dared, tho' moſt groundleſly and moſt falſly, to make the Application. What noble Earl's Embaſſy has been ſtigmatized? Where does he find the Lieutenancy of Ireland called an honourable Exile? What Foundation is there for any of the other Queries? Certainly a greater Inſult cannot be offer'd to Perſons of high Diſtinction, as well as moſt ſtrict Virtue and inflexible Integrity, than to fix Characters upon them which every Body knows don't in the leaſt reſemble them, nor which they don't in the leaſt deſerve; and I make no Doubt but the noble Perſons who have been thus infamouſly and vilely ſlander'd by this dirty Tool, under the Pretence of vindicating them from the Aſperſions of another, will feel the Effects of their Reſentment, and be chaſtiſed by them as his Inſolence and Folly deſerves.

Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Warſaw, May 5. O. S.

THE King of Sweden has caus'd a Memorial to be diſtributed here to ſupport his Pretenſions, and thoſe of the Landgraves of Heſſe Caſſel his Brothers, and the Princeſſes his Siſters, to the Dutchy of Courland. 'Tis reported that the Turks have inveſted Aſoph, in order to beſiege it. The Garriſon of that Place conſiſts of 12,000 Men, under the Lieutenant General Baron de Stoffeln, who two Years ago oblig'd the Turks to raiſe the Siege of Oczakow.

We hear from Kiow that General Laſcy is march'd with 60,000 Men towards the Crim, and that the Velt Marſhal de Munich is march'd alſo towards Bender with an Army of 160,000 Men.

Petersburg, April 30. O. S. A hundred new Gallies are building here, and in the ſeveral Ports of this Empire; and at Cronſtad they are actually fitting up ſeven Men of War, viz. one of 100 Guns, one of 64, and five of 54.

Vienna, May 9. O. S. According to a Liſt that is publiſh'd of the Forces that are to ſerve this Year in Hungary and Tranſylvania, the Number amounts to 94,575 Men.

Genoa, May 3. O. S. According to the laſt Letters from Baſtia, ſeveral of the French Officers and Soldiers have lately been aſſaſſinated, which Accidents are aſcrib'd by ſome to Robbers, and by others to the Hatred of the Inhabitants. A Captain of the Regiment of Auvergne was found dead in his Bed of Wounds which appear'd to have been given by a Dagger, for which one of the Murderers has been apprehended. 'Tis certain that the Baron de Neuhoff is not yet return'd to that Iſland. The Stranger who lately arriv'd there on board a Neapolitan Veſſel is the Baron de Droſt, Nephew to the Baron de Neuhoff, who was ſo welcome to the Rebels that they have declar'd him Generaliſſimo of what they call the Confederate Army. They were afterwards for carrying him over all the Country, that he might be recogniz'd in that Character. But the Baron de Droſt did not think fit to truſt them ſo far, and has reſolv'd to ſtay at the Convent of Orezza, where he will be in a Condition to put off again, in caſe the Inconſtancy of the Corſicans, or ſome fatal Accident, ſhould oblige him to abandon the Employment of Generaliſſimo. Mean Time, he has thought it neceſſary to form a Guard for the Security of his Perſon, and has made a Diſplay of his new Title by granting a general Pardon to all the Corſicans who, having embrac'd the Genoeſe Party, ſhall by ſuch a Time rejoin the Confederates. The Uneaſineſs of the Rebels at the tedious Abſence of the Baron de Neuhoff has determin'd his Nephew to aſſure them that he will certainly return e'er it be long, and that they will ſoon receive a Supply of Ammunition.

LONDON.

The laſt Letters from Liſbon ſay, that on the 18th ult. the Earl of Sandwich and Lord Auguſtus Fitzroy had the Honour to kiſs the King's Hand, and were very graciouſly receiv'd.

Some Perſons having in the Night between the 7th and 8th Inſt. got into the Paddock of the Earl of Tankerville at Uppark in Suſſex, and killed ſeveral Deer, ſome of which they carried away, and left other[illegible] had there: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Offenders, has been pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: and his Lordship has promised a Reward of Fifty Pounds on such Conviction.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Shuckford preached before his Majesty, the Princess Amelia and Louisa, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

The Sword of State was carried before his Majesty to and from the Chapel by his Grace the Duke of Portland.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, who has been ill of the Measles, is in a fair way of Recovery.

On Saturday last his Majesty, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Richmond, and several other Persons of Distinction, went to the Meuse at Charing-Cross, and there view'd 12 fine Dun Stone-Horses lately arrived from Hanover.

The same Day their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales set out for Clifedon House for the Summer Season.

Saturday last Sir Conyers D'Arcy, Comptroller of his Majesty's Houshold, set out with a numerous Retinue for his Seat in Yorkshire.

As did also his Grace the Duke of Bridgewater for his Seat in Hertfordshire for the Summer Season.

To-morrow being the Restoration of King Charles the IId. the same will be observed at Court as a high Festival, when the Knights Companions of the most Noble Order of Garter, Thistle and Bath, will appear in the Collars of their respective Orders.

Last Saturday the Corpse of Jeremiah Dummer, Esq; formerly Agent for New England, was carried in great State from his Lodgings at Plaistow in Essex, where he died, to the neighbouring Parish of Westham, and interr'd in the Church there, near the Remains of his Friend and Countryman Mr. Foxcraft, according to his Desire whilst living. His Funeral was attended by a good Number of New England Merchants, and other Gentlemen his Friends and Acquaintance, to whom by his Will he directed Rings to be given without any Inscription whatever, but only this Motto, which he thought deserv'd Consideration, Nulla retro Via.

Friday last Mr. Robert Penny, of Wine-Office-Court, Fleet-street, was appointed Printer to the East-India-Company, in the room of the Widow Willmer, deceased.

Last Friday died in an advanced Age, at his Lodgings at Harrow on the Hill, to which Place he went for the Benefit of the Air, Andrew Smart, Esq; a Gentleman of a very plentiful Estate, and in the Commission of the Peace for the County of Sussex.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men, By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS; Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolifick in a most wonderful Manner.

HUndreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouze, fortify, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Part appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cause soever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

The GRAND SPECIFICK for Cleansing and Strengthening the Reins, &c.

A Medicine that hath gain'd so much Credit, for these many Years it has been publish'd, that not one of the many Pretenders to cure the like Cases, has at all hinder'd the just Reputation this first and only Specifick for these Purposes, hath obtain'd, by its most noble Effects; for it doth not only cure such difficult Cases, which no other Medicine can: But in every ordinary Case, one Bottle will do more real Good than four, that are sold by any of the common Pretenders, as has been sufficiently attested by many Persons of Worth and Reputation that have found the desired Effects, and declared it to Mr. Sandwell.

It may be certainly depended on as absolutely effectual, for carrying off, by Urine, safely and speedily, all the Relicks of secret Injuries, Remains of pernicious unskilfully prepared Mercurials, Gleets or Weaknesses, thro' tedious or ill manag'd Cures of the Venereal Disease; or from Self-pollution, inordinate Coition, &c.

Also any Weaknesses of the Vessels from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obstructions in the Urinary Passages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c. are perfectly cured by it, be they of ever so long standing; which Relicks and Ailments are, in Part, discovered by these following Symptoms, viz. Weakness and Pain in the Back, a Sharpness in the Urine, its strong Smell, Films or Hairs as it were floating about in it, and, in some, too frequent Occasion to make it.

This noble Specifick is also of singular and very extraordinary Use and Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or even small Stones, Slime, or any other Matter that obstructs the Urine, bringing all away in a few Times taking, with Safety, and to the very great Satisfaction of the Patients, as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and particularly by a Gentleman, whose Case has so often been mentioned in this Advertisement, by a Certificate of his Cure; who, on taking but a little of this noble Specifick, voided above an Ounce of Gravel, and was cured of an insupportable Pain about his Loins, &c. by a short Continuance of it.

It also strengthens and recovers, after a particular Manner, all Relaxations of the Vessels, confirms the Parts, bringing all into Order, and thereby perfects the Cure to Admiration. It is a very pleasant Medicine, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation, which is the Reason of its being made publick, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Cases above-mentioned.

One Bottle, in most Cases, is sufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will see by the Directions given with it.

Sold at 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-shop, at the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury, in the Poultry.
